END OF TIMES . . . AGAIN?

In these historic times of great social and political turmoil, thousands of people around the world are asking some very serious questions.

International Bible Institute Library

The End Of Israel (Matthew 24)

His People Endure Forever: Shelf 7 — Volume 61

- ▶ Is God still working with the Jews in order to restore them as a nation to the land of Palestine?
- ▶ According to the plan of God, do the Jews even have a right to this land?

Some are asking if God even intended to continue His work with the Jews after they crucified His Son over two thousand years ago.

- ▶ And then, what about the rapture? Is there such a thing, and it is about to occur?
- ▶ In the rapture, who will be taken and who will be left?
- ▶ As we become more aware of the present world of social and political turmoil, are we to begin looking for signs of the final coming of Jesus and the end of this world?
- ▶ When Jesus does come, will He reign as a king on this earth for 1,000 years of peace?
- ▶ In view of all these hopes and aspirations, is the "Abomination of Desolation," about which the Bible speaks, ready to appear to signal the end of the world?
- ▶ And then, are we about to move into a time of great tribulation where we will all endure great social turmoil?

These questions are certainly troubling. Nevertheless, we have some great news! The great news is that Jesus answered all these questions over 2,000 years ago. Yes! The answers are right there in your Bible in Matthew 24. Go to the preceding International Bible Institute Library, and download Volume 61.

We are very thankful that about thirty years after Jesus personally answered all these questions, Matthew, the apostle, recorded Jesus' answers. The answers are in the book of Matthew, chapter 24. This is great news, and a fantastic opportunity for everyone to be encouraged about the present and future.

You can discover Jesus' answers to all these questions by going to the International Bible Institute Library, at . . . www.roger-e-dickson.org
